

TOMS RIVER, NJ - On Friday, February 20th, Congressman John Adler will host an Ocean County Transportation roundtable from 2 - 4 pm. Congressman Adler has invited all of Ocean County's mayors, freeholders and state elected officials to participate. Furthermore, Adler arranged for New Jersey Transportation Commissioner Stephen Dilts to be on hand to listen to Ocean County's priorities.

WHO: Congressman John Adler (NJ-03),
New Jersey Transportation Commissioner Stephen Dilts,
Ocean County Mayors,
Freeholders and, other elected officials

WHAT: Transportation Roundtable on Ocean County's priorities

WHEN: Friday, February 20th from 2 - 4 pm.
Media interviews are available before and after event.

WHERE: L. Manuel Hirshblond Public Meeting Room
Township of Toms River Municipal Building
33 Washington Street
Toms River, NJ

Some topics that will be discussed include building a parallel Route 72 bridge; developing the MOM Line; updates on Army Corps of Engineers projects; and finding funding for other transportation and infrastructure needs in the County. Congressman Adler is determined to ensure that Ocean County receives its adequate share of federal and state transportation money in order to encourage smart economic development and improve the quality of life for local residents.